Why Become a Member?

Professionalism.

Your association with the CAE brand conveys that you demonstrate integrity, provide high-quality products and services, are ethical, and are team-oriented.

Education.

You will receive the most up-to-date information on career and technical education offerings as a member.

Perks.

Receive deep discounts on CAE trainings and events, and marketing.

Networking.

Network with other peer professionals to share ideas and learn new ones. Meet new people in our community whom you wouldn't have met otherwise, and grow your customer base.

Profile.

Membership provides an avenue to "give something back" in service to your community. While this in itself is an admirable thing to do, it's a win-win transaction as it also raises your profile in the professional community.

Recognition.

As a Member, CAE helps to shine a light on outstanding work that should be showcased but might otherwise have remained undiscovered.
